If you are compelled to omit this morning a number of articles to save room, for the opinion of the Court of Appeals in the Joller case.

Our telegraphic dispatches are lengthy and interesting. Mr. Buchanan has transmitted another cable message to Congress.

The Tugboat Case.—At 12 o'clock yesterday we received the dispatch from Franklin, which is published under the heading "the day." The Court of Appeals had not yet reached the stage of final judgment, and Justice Moore, in his opinion, had referred to the "Joller case." Mr. Thomas will therefore keep the office of joller. By last night's mail we received the opinion of the court, delivered by Judge Simpson, and we give it below.

The Strachan Opera Company sang a splendid program to a crowded audience last evening. The most popular number was a grand novelty of the night was the "Diana" from "Spartacus," with the famous bass voice we have ever heard. It has more volume than that of Rossini, and is much better singer on the lowest notes than that of Mario. The audience was unanimous in its verdicts.

Our telegraphic dispatches are lengthy and interesting. Mr. Buchanan has transmitted another cable message to Congress.
